AMERICAN PROFESSIONAL SOCIETY ON THE ABUSE OF CHILDREN

APSAC is a non-profit interdisciplinary membership organization incorporated in 1987. Thousands of professionals from all over the world – attorneys, child protective services workers, law enforcement officers, nurses, physicians, researchers, teachers, psychologists, counselors, clergy, administrators and allies – have joined APSAC’s effort to ensure that everyone affected by child maltreatment receives the best possible professional response.

MISSION

- Providing professional education that promotes effective, culturally sensitive, and interdisciplinary approaches to the identification, intervention, treatment and prevention of child abuse and neglect.
- Promoting research and guidelines to inform professional practice.
- Educating the public about child abuse and neglect.
- Ensuring that America’s public policy concerning child maltreatment is well informed and constructive.

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

- The APSAC Advisor, a hands-on style, electronic (PDF format) quarterly publication that brings you the latest news in practice, research, legislation, publication and events in the field of child maltreatment. APSAC's Online Library features content from the APSAC Advisor.
- Child Maltreatment, the distinguished quarterly peer-reviewed journal designed expressly to bring APSAC's members the latest research, policy, and practice information in clear language and immediately usable form.
- Discounts on APSAC's National Colloquium, Forensic Interview Clinics and Institutes.
- A thriving State Chapter network through which members can form vital partnerships with other professionals in their states.
- The opportunity to participate in national task forces, establishing best practice guidelines in many critical areas.
- Access to all APSAC Practice Guidelines (online, PDF format), including Forensic Interviewing in Cases of Suspected Child Abuse, Integrating Prevention Into the Work of Child Maltreatment Professionals, Challenges in the Evaluation of Child Neglect, and more. New Guidelines become available as they are published.
- An interdisciplinary professional network of thousands of colleagues.
- Online web tools, including a Membership Directory, Career Center, and Library.
